

Viktoria Baskakova is a Russian pianist. She has graduated from the Special High School of Music at the Rimsky-Korsakov St. Petersburg State Conservatory with honours. In 2016 she started her education at the Tchaikovsky Moscow State Conservatory in a class under professor Alexander Mndoyants.

Viktoria has won various awards in many international competitions:

1st prize of the A. N. Scriabin International piano competition in Paris; 1st prize of the "Le muse" International piano competition in Italy; 2nd prize of the Armenia ("14 ways to Malta")

International Piano competition in Yerevan; 4th prize in "The Neapolitan Masters" International piano competition in Italy. She received the Special prize for the best participant from Eastern Europe at the 9th International Franz Liszt piano competition in Weimar-Bayreuth. She had her master-classes in France, Saint-Etienne.

Viktoria Baskakova also took part in Busoni International piano competition and Liszt International piano competition in Utrecht.